About Project Legacy

Project Legacy was founded to commemorate historic events, honor humanitarian leadership, and translate moral imperatives into meaningful legislative action.

Through collaboration with Congress, international leaders, and civic institutions, Project Legacy has helped advance some of the most meaningful recognitions in modern American civic life, including:

- The Raoul Wallenberg Congressional Gold Medal, honoring the diplomat who saved thousands during World War II.
- The Anwar Sadat Congressional Gold Medal, recognizing the leader whose courage reshaped the Middle East and achieved peace with Israel.
- The Iran Hostages Congressional Gold Medal, honoring the fifty-two Americans held during the hostage crisis.
- The Forgotten Heroes of the Holocaust Medal, recognizing non-Jewish rescuers who risked their lives to save others.
